Hi everyone,

ETFs are one of the hottest investment vehicles today, attracting billions of dollars from every corner of the financial services ecosystem. More than ever, investors are using ETFs in their portfolios to gain market exposure without the single-stock risk to combat volatility. But with so many ETFs on the market today, and more launching every year, it can be tough to determine which ones will work best in your portfolio.

During The World of ETF Investing Canada Virtual Expo, a free online event for investors and traders, you will hear from Canada's leading ETF experts and portfolio managers as they walk you through the ETF universe and show you effective strategies you can implement to turbocharge your investment portfolio.

A Few Reasons to Watch Live:

- Watch 30+ presentations from ETF experts including Cathie Wood, Rob Carrick, Eric Nuttall, Trevor Cummings, Steve Hawkins, and more!
- Receive actionable advice, timely recommendations, and in-depth strategies for identifying the best investments for your portfolio.
- Ask your most pressing financial questions during live Q&As with speakers and fellow investors and traders from around Canada.
- Download information about new products and services, watch videos from cutting-edge companies, and enter to win free prizes.
